Confined Space Training available!

A confined space can be ANY space of an enclosed nature where there is a risk of death or serious injury from hazardous substances or dangerous conditions such as the following:

- A lack of oxygen.
- Poisonous gas, fume or vapour Liquids and solids which can suddenly fill the space, or release gases into it, when disturbed.
- Free-flowing solids such as grain can also partially solidify or 'bridge' in silos, causing blockages which can collapse unexpectedly.
- Fire and explosions (e.g. from flammable vapours, excess oxygen etc.).
- Residues left in tanks, vessels etc., or remaining on internal surfaces, which can give off gas, fume or vapour.
- Dust present in high concentrations, e.g. in flour silos.
- Hot conditions leading to a dangerous increase in body temperature.
- If entry into a confined space cannot be avoided a safe system of work must be put into place, including the precautions identified, developed and put into practice.
- Everyone involved will need to be properly trained and instructed to make sure they know what to do and how to do it safely

Alliance Learning are able to deliver the following Confined Space courses from our purpose built training unit at our office in Horwich, Bolton:

- Confined Space Novice (Low Risk)
- Confined Space Refresher (Low Risk)
- Confined Space Novice (Medium Risk)
- Confined Space Refresher (Medium Risk)

Course Aim – To ensure delegates who need to enter confined spaces gain the knowledge and understanding so they can do so safely. This includes competent use of the appropriate equipment including escape breathing apparatus. All courses involve both theoretical and practical tuition and delegates will be continually assessed throughout. Certification of attendance is issued to delegates who successfully pass both the practical and theory assessments.
